MAYOR BARRONE PAINTS THE TOWN PINK

October 16, 2014 - Today, in recognition of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, Mayor Daniel Barrone painted the Town pink by displaying pink balloons throughout the historic district.

Mayor Barrone stated, "Breast cancer has touched each one of us as we all have a mother, daughter, sister, family member, or friend who has been affected by this illness. The Town Council and I take great pride in showing the Town's support of the courageous women who have fought, survived and have been taken by breast cancer. I urge all citizens to take the time to honor these brave women and join me in creating awareness within our community".
