WATER FLOW FROM MANHOLE AT INTERSECTION OF RANCHITOS AND CARABAJAL ROAD

Saturday, May 23, 2015 – Taos, NM

Water has been flowing from a manhole located at the intersection of Ranchitos and Carabajal Road throughout the day due to infiltration of irrigation water into a manhole located in the El Prado Water and Sanitation District.

Crews have been dispatched to the location to berm around the troubled area and we expect that the flow from the manhole at Ranchitos and Carabajal Road to subside over time.

Thank you for your understanding and please use caution in that area.
